

REPORTABLE CONDUCT SCHEME

Uniting Early Learning is subject to Queensland's Reportable Conduct Scheme. This means any concerns about child abuse or harm caused by a worker or volunteer will be investigated and reported to the Queensland Family and Child Commission, as the law requires.

We take our responsibilities under the scheme very seriously. If you have a concern, report it to us immediately.

- Notify us about a reportable conduct matter by contacting the Nominated Supervisor or Responsible Person or using the contact details on display in the foyer of the service where your children attend.
- Learn more about how we manage concerns and complaints by reading our Child Protection Policy and Privacy and Confidentiality Policy
- Find out more about the Reportable Conduct Scheme
- You can also raise a concern with the Queensland Family and Child Commission